ACCELERATED BACCALAUREATE PROGRAM:

This program allows a select group of students to compress or accelerate their degree program. Students chosen for admission into this program have recognized academic proficiencies warranting reductions in general education and elective credit requirements resulting in reduction of the university's standard 180 credit hour baccalaureate degree requirement. Accelerated Baccalaureate students must take a minimum of 135 credit hours in residence at the university. Credits earned through approved exchange programs may be counted toward this minimum. All department major requirements also must be completed in residence.

GRADING SYSTEM AND GRADE POINTS:

A – Exceptional	4.00 grade points per hour
B – Superior	3.00 grade points per hour
C – Average	2.00 grade points per hour
D – Inferior	1.00 grade points per hour
F – Failure	0.00 grade points per hour
+ or –	Plus or minus 0.30 points
E – Final Examination Not Taken	No credit or grade points
I – Incomplete	No credit or grade points
M – Missing	No credit or grade points
NC – No Credit (no basis for grade)	No credit or grade points
NP – No Pass	No credit or grade points
P – Pass (C- or better)	Credit given, no grade points
W – Withdrawal	No credit or grade points
WP – Withdraw Passing	No credit or grade points
WF – Withdraw Failing	Prior to Fall 1990, 0.00 grade points per hour toward GPA; Fall 1990 and later, not computed in GPA
WD – Withdrawn	No credit or grade points
X – No basis for grade	No credit or grade points
Au – Audit	No credit or grade points

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM:

Through Summer 1990...

1-49	Credit not applicable toward a degree
50-99	Credit courses applicable toward a degree but of a basic, preparatory, sub-freshman level through 1981-82. Since Fall 1982, credit not applicable toward a degree
100-299	Undergraduate lower division courses
300-499	Undergraduate upper division courses. 400-level courses with a 'G' after the letter grade or after the course number, carry graduate credit
500-599	Graduate level courses
700	In-service courses, not applicable toward a degree

Beginning Fall 1990...

1-99	Credit not applicable toward a degree
100-299	Undergraduate lower division courses
300-499	Undergraduate upper division courses
500-599	Graduate level courses

Beginning Fall 1997...

800-899	In-service courses. May be counted toward a master's degree with approval of the graduate program
---------	---

REPEATED COURSES:

For non-repeatable courses, only the most recent credits and grade will be computed in institutional and cumulative GPA regardless of earlier grades. Starting with Summer 1990, repeated courses will include 'I' or 'E' codes in the column labeled 'R'. An 'I' indicates the credits and quality points were included. An 'E' indicates the credits and quality points were excluded. Excluded courses are not applicable toward a degree.
