PACIFIC LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

The University was founded in 1890 and opened as Pacific Lutheran Academy. It became a junior college in 1921. Ten years later, it was organized into a three-year normal school which became a college of education in 1939. After 1941, it expanded as Pacific Lutheran College until it was reorganized as a University in 1960.

ACCREDITATION

Pacific Lutheran University is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities. Specialized accreditations are detailed in the University catalog.

CALENDAR

PLU adopted the “4-1-4” calendar effective September 1969. The calendar consists of two fifteen-week semesters bridged by a four-week January term. Course credit is in semester hours.

COURSE NUMBERING

011-099: courses that carry no university credit; 100-199: courses normally taken by first-years; 200-299: courses normally taken by sophomores; 300-320 (1970-1994): courses unique to Interim; 300-499 (1994-present): courses normally taken by juniors and seniors (these courses may be included in graduate programs); 500-699: graduate-level courses (these courses may be included in undergraduate programs); 800-899: undergraduate-level continuing education courses; 900-999: graduate-level continuing education courses.

CODES

Pass-Plus grades (PA+, PA, PA-, etc.) are used for courses in which a letter grade was noted, but pass credit was given. The letter grade is not used in the GPA computation. These are used primarily for courses taken through approved Study Away programs.

Course repeats are marked on the far right-hand side of each transcript column (column marked “R”). An “I” means the course is included in the GPA calculation. An “E” means the course is excluded from the GPA calculation.

Credit by exam (challenge) courses are indicated by an X prior to the course number (ex: X467) or in the course title.

UNIVERSITY HONORS

Through August 1997: 3.90-4.00 Summa cum laude; 3.70-3.89 Magna cum laude; 3.40-3.69 Cum laude. December 1997 forward: 3.90-4.00 Summa cum laude; 3.75-3.89 Magna cum laude; 3.50-3.74 Cum laude. From December 1997-August 2007 transfer and Study Away grades were included in the honors calculations while Physical Education activity courses were excluded. From December 2007 forward, graduation honors are determined by the cumulative grade point average of all PLU coursework and students must complete a minimum of 64 hours at PLU to be eligible. Study Away courses count toward the 64-hour minimum but do not count in the honors calculation.
