Greetings,

I have known Mamadou Seck for five-plus years. He was an intern at my bookstore. At this time, he expressed his interest in obtaining a Master's degree.

His commitment to his education is evident and I am certain it will be beneficial for Mamadou and also his community. He has long expressed an interest in community leadership and has the ability to organize people in a positive and collective manner. His Bachelor Degree in English with a focus on African and Caribbean Literature has served as the first step for a growing interest in global issues.

Whether your education is face-to-face or virtual, I am certain he will be fully involved. Mamadou has worked hard to continue his education. This passion along with his desire to learn as much as possible about how other cities, countries, and cultures work will be a force that drives him forward.

I believe he will be an asset to your institution and future alumni that you will hear about. I highly recommend him for this Master program.

Sincerely,

Angela Franklin
