Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Recommendation Letter for Mr. Jean Temu

Mr. Jean Temu is known to me for a number of years, but academically for 3 years, and it is on this basis that I provide the below remarks on his suitability for a Master's program in your reputable The Evergreen State College.

Mr. Temu was one of my outstanding students in his bachelor degree program in Rural Development during the learning process. I am also aware that he also excelled in other courses as well and was able to attain a second-class honours' cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 4.3. In my classes he was able to demonstrate quick understanding of the subject matter and demonstrated ability for critical thinking, problem solving, gender responsiveness and originality in the learning process. He was able to engage very well with others in class and was able to undertake independent work and demonstrate critical skills required.

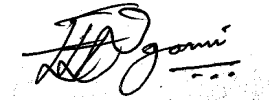

I have also had the opportunity to work with Mr. Temu on his special project in his undergraduate level and found him to be very hardworking, a quick learner and with a friendly personality. He is definitely turning out to be an outstanding person who is held in high regard by his peers.

Mr. Temu's charisma and compassion stretch beyond the realm of academics, making him a valuable team leader and a pleasure to work with. This is because of his planning and organizational skills, along with friendly personality, professionalism, and extraordinary technical skills (Ms word, Ms excel, Ms PowerPoint, quantitative analysis of data using various statistical software) and learning feedback that make him the ideal candidate for your postgraduate program. He is also an expert at providing critical criticisms in the learning process (as his strength/weakness). This gentle leadership was illustrated whenever he was engaged in formal discussion during lecture hours as a student.

Therefore, I have no doubt that Mr. Temu has the necessary aptitude and commitment to undertake his Master's program at your esteemed institution. I highly recommend him to undertake the mentioned program as he has shown the potential to become an outstanding in his endeavours. Kindly reach me via +255717708609, or at edwin.ngowi@sua.ac.tz if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,
