Re: Letter of Recommendation – Logan Ashen

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Logan Ashen as a graduate student within your organization. Logan joined the Thurston County Prosecuting Attorney's Office on February 16, 2023, as a Legal Assistant II, where he was initially assigned to the Special Victim caseload. Within six months, an opportunity arose within the Misdemeanor caseload, and due to Logan's efficient and accurate work, he was invited to make a lateral transfer to this new role. Logan performed exceptionally well in this position.

Throughout his tenure, Logan consistently demonstrated respect towards his coworkers and maintained a professional demeanor, always approaching his work with a positive attitude. He is highly regarded by his colleagues and other department personnel.

Logan embodies qualities of intelligence, kindness, respectfulness, and teamwork. His commitment to continuous learning is evident in his proactive approach to acquiring new skills.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at 360-786-5540 ext. 6271. I would be happy to answer any questions and provide more information about Logan.

Sincerely,

Wendy Ireland
Legal Support Manager
