RE: Tamara Davis

Dear Members of the Admissions Committee,

I am writing to highly recommend Tamara Davis for admission to the Master of Administration program in the area of nonprofit beginning in 2024. I have had the pleasure of knowing Tamara for the past 25 in both a professional and personal capacity. Her dedication, passion, and exceptional skills make her an ideal candidate for your esteemed institution.

I am Mildred D. Muhammad, an Award-Winning Global Keynote Speaker, International Expert Speaker for the US Dept of State, Certified Consultant with the US Dept. of Justice/Office for Victims of Crime, CNN Contributor, Domestic Abuse Survivor, Certified Domestic Violence Advocate, Advisory Board Member & Public Speaking Instructor for The National Resource Center on Domestic Violence, Bachelor of Science in Psychology, Best-Selling Author, Trainer & Educator, Certified Professional/Personal Development Consultant, a Member of ForbesBLK and received 2023 DomesticShelters.org Purple Ribbon Lifetime Achievement Medallion Award as well as the 2022 Who's Who in America Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award.

I also engage in international travels and address audiences worldwide, sharing my experiences as the former spouse of the DC Sniper. Through my compelling story, I shed light on the horrors of my past, including terror, abuse, and heartbreak. Simultaneously, I advocate for Domestic Abuse/Violence Awareness and Prevention, raising awareness on a global scale. I am recognized as “One of the Nation’s most powerful advocates for victims and survivors of domestic violence”.

I have had the opportunity to work closely with Tamara where she has consistently demonstrated outstanding leadership and a deep commitment in working with mental health. Tamara possesses a unique combination of strategic thinking, empathy, and determination that sets her apart. She has shown an exceptional ability to lead diverse teams, manage complex projects, and navigate the challenges of the nonprofit sector with grace and tenacity.

Tamara's passion for making a positive impact in the community is truly inspiring. Her dedication to social causes, especially in areas related to mental illness showcases her genuine concern for the well-being of others. Tamara's proactive approach to problem-solving and her ability to collaborate effectively make her an asset to any team or project.

One of Tamara's most commendable qualities is her commitment to continuous learning. She actively seeks out opportunities to expand her knowledge and skills, demonstrating a thirst for knowledge that will undoubtedly serve her well in an academic setting. Her intellectual curiosity, combined with her practical experience, makes her a well-rounded and insightful candidate for your Master of Administration program.

Tamara's excellent communication skills, both written and verbal, have consistently impressed me. She can articulate complex ideas with clarity and precision, a skill that is essential in the field of nonprofit administration, where effective communication can drive positive change.

Beyond her professional attributes, Tamara is a person of integrity, kindness, and reliability. She is highly respected by her colleagues and peers, not only for her professional achievements but also for her genuine and approachable demeanor. Her ability to inspire and motivate others is a testament to her leadership qualities and her genuine passion for the nonprofit sector.

I have no doubt that Tamara Davis will thrive in your Master of Administration program and will contribute significantly to the Evergreen State College community. Her dedication to nonprofit work, coupled with her exceptional skills and unwavering commitment to positive social change, make her an exemplary candidate. I wholeheartedly recommend Tamara for admission to your program. I am confident she will excel and make substantial contributions to the field of nonprofit administration.

Please feel free to contact me at info@MildredMuhammad.com, if you require any additional information. Thank you for considering Tamara Davis for admission to Evergreen State College. I am confident that she will make a lasting impact and uphold the high standards of your institution.

Sincerely,
