To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Ayana Eagans. I enjoyed working with Ayana Eagans as their faculty at the Evergreen State College during their undergraduate studies in Audio Postproduction for Film and Television. In my teaching and mentoring experience, Ayana stands out as one of the most visionary, dedicated, and ambitious students. They have a spark for learning and growth and show continuous interest in innovative technologies. Ayana attended my full-time summer program and completed all course requirements, and fully participated in film theory analysis and critique sessions. Ayana demonstrated proficiency in navigating the complex signal flow of productions and was able to think outside of the box to creatively apply digital signal processing in context with their unique objectives. Ayana is a student who can manage technical requirements, communicate effectively, and work professionally within a collaborative learning environment. As a student pursuing an advanced degree, Ayana is one of those students that any faculty would love to have in their learning environment.

Sincerely,

Zenaida Vergara
