TRIBAL GOVERNANCE & BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

June 6, 2024

To the Graduate School Selection Committee:

Kealoha Kalama is an outstanding student, and a wonderful human being. I write this letter of recommendation on her behalf sincerely hoping that she will be selected to complete her master's program at your institution.

Kealoha is a recent graduate of Northwest Indian College, and I am more than happy to recommend her for your graduate program of study. I am sure her grades will reflect her ability to follow through on completing assignments on time with quality work. I feel she will be an asset to your program, and a great mentor for present and hopefully future scholars.

Kealoha is dedicated to her work, and one can feel the passion that she carries with her in all aspects of her life as a student and a member of her community. "Kiki" wants to give back to her community and is not afraid of work. She tirelessly puts forth the effort required to complete all the assignments, and then goes above and beyond by constantly reaching out to her fellow scholars in any way she can to help them with their research projects.

We were very fortunate to have Kealoha as a student at Northwest Indian College, and I sincerely hope she will be supported as she tries to better herself and her community. This letter does not do her justice, and I hope she is given the opportunity to prove herself by having the opportunity to allow her actions speak for her.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me by phone or email.

Sincerely,

Adib Jamshedi
